Questions related to specific materials, methods, and services will be addressed at the conclusion of this presentation.

Course Description

Project leaders have to wear many hats. In addition to keeping a project on track there is more awareness of the importance on soft skills. It can take up to 9 months for a project team to go through its traditional learning curve, The time, inefficiencies and mistakes during that period cost projects 5 – 7%. The friction and conflict and unplanned costs many projects live through can be avoided. This workshop will share some of the essential tools and coaching skills MindShift uses to shorten the learning curve to weeks rather than months, You will learn the unique MindShift approach to “fireproof” your team to handle the heat and pressure through the many unexpected changes and crises projects experience. This workshop reviews using tools like CliftonStrengths, DiSC and others to quickly create a common language and culture. You will receive a tool for building tangle trust and more importantly how it is repaired. How to use these tools to create a positive approach to conflict, a key indication of a high performing team. Finally, you will learn new tools for managing project crises developed from the techniques used in hospital emergency rooms.

Learning Objectives

01.

At the end of this course, participants will know how a culture that drives high engagement and high performance of a project team is developed.

02.

At the end of this course, participants will be able to discuss and demonstrate the coaching skills used to shorten the learning curve of their project teams.

03.

At the end of this course, participants will understand tools like CliftonStrengths, DiSC and others to create a common language and culture for a positive approach to conflict.

04.

At the end of this course, participants will recognize the reciprocal relationship between the cultural welfare of a project team and its performance, and how focus on people benefits the team and the project.

The Five Behaviors and Your Team

Remember, the five behaviors can be mistakenly interpreted as five distinct issues that can be addressed in isolation of one another. But in reality they form an interrelated model, and neglecting even one of the behaviors can be potentially harmful to the success of a team. Below are your team's results for each behavior, based on the team's responses to the assessment questions.

- LOW
1.00-3.24
- MEDIUM
3.25-3.75
- HIGH
3.76-5.00

Summary of Your Team Survey Results

Your assessment scores indicate that results is likely an area of strength for your team, while accountability, commitment, conflict, and trust are potentially areas for improvement.

5. RESULTS

This team may need to place greater value on the collective achievement of outcomes, rather than individual or departmental recognition and ego.

4. ACCOUNTABILITY

This team may hesitate to confront one another about performance and behavioral concerns.

3. COMMITMENT

This team may not be able to buy in to clear decisions, leaving room for ambiguity and second-guessing.

2. CONFLICT

This team doesn't seem comfortable engaging in unfiltered discussion around important topics.

1. TRUST

This team may lack necessary levels of openness and vulnerability about individual strengths, weaknesses, mistakes, and needs for help.

WHAT GETS DONE

mindshift

What gets PICTURED gets done. How well am I doing this?

People forget the vision within four weeks, so paint the picture constantly.

What gets MODELED gets done. Does my behavior reinforce the picture?

People determine what is important by what we do.

What gets SCHEDULED gets done. Are my most important activities on the calendar and do I respect the time?

If it is not on the calendar, we are not committed to it.

What gets FINANCED gets done. Do I really believe people will sustain a new initiative without sufficient resources?

Budget must reflect our plan and priorities.

What gets TRAINED gets done. Is this on the calendar and is it meaningful?

A person performs up to the level of training.

What gets MEASURED gets done. Is each employee bought-in to their leading measures?

Measurable goals get done.

What gets CELEBRATED gets done. Do I provide daily and frequent recognition?

Reinforced behavior is repeated behavior.
